TECHCORP HR POLICY HANDBOOK

Effective Date: January 1, 2024
Version: 3.2 | HR Department | hr@techcorp.com

SECTION 1: LEAVE AND TIME OFF POLICY

1.1 Annual Leave (Paid Time Off)

All full-time employees are entitled to 20 days of annual paid leave per calendar year. Part-time employees receive leave on a pro-rata basis. Leave entitlement accrues at a rate of 1.67 days per month of service. Unused annual leave up to 10 days may be carried forward to the following year but must be used within the first quarter (by March 31). Employees must submit leave requests at least 5 business days in advance through the HR portal. Requests are subject to manager approval.

1.2 Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 12 days of sick leave per year. Sick leave is non-cumulative and cannot be carried forward. For absences exceeding 3 consecutive days, a medical certificate from a registered physician is required. Sick leave does not apply to pre-planned medical procedures, which should be taken as planned medical leave.

1.3 Casual Leave

Each employee receives 6 days of casual leave per year for personal emergencies or short-notice absences. Casual leave must be applied for before or on the same day of absence. Casual leave cannot be clubbed with other leave types without prior written approval from HR.

1.4 Maternity and Paternity Leave

Maternity Leave: Female employees are entitled to 26 weeks of paid maternity leave for the first two children. For subsequent children, the entitlement is 12 weeks. Leave can commence up to 8 weeks before the expected date of delivery.
Paternity Leave: Male employees are entitled to 10 working days of paid paternity leave, to be taken within 3 months of the child's birth.

1.5 Bereavement Leave

Employees may take up to 5 paid bereavement leave days for the death of an immediate family member (spouse, child, parent, or sibling). Up to 3 days for extended family members (grandparents, in-laws). Proof of relationship may be requested by HR.

1.6 Public Holidays

Employees are entitled to all gazetted public holidays (approximately 14 per year). If an employee is required to work on a public holiday, they will receive either a replacement day off or 1.5x their daily rate.

SECTION 2: REMOTE WORK AND FLEXIBLE WORK POLICY

2.1 Work From Home (WFH) Eligibility

All permanent employees who have completed their 3-month probation period are eligible for remote work arrangements. Employees on performance improvement plans are not eligible for WFH until the plan is closed.

2.2 WFH Schedule

The standard remote work allowance is up to 3 days per week from home. Employees must be present in the office a minimum of 2 days per week, unless otherwise approved by their department head. Mondays and Fridays are not guaranteed WFH days and depend on team requirements.

2.3 Remote Work Equipment

The company provides a laptop and necessary software for remote work. Employees are responsible for a stable internet connection (minimum 25 Mbps recommended). A monthly internet allowance of $30 is provided. Company equipment must not be used for personal commercial activities. Lost or damaged company equipment due to negligence will be charged to the employee at the current replacement cost.

2.4 Availability During Remote Work

Remote employees must be available and online during core hours: 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM in their local time zone. Response to messages must be within 30 minutes during core hours. Employees must attend all scheduled meetings and standups virtually.

SECTION 3: CODE OF CONDUCT

3.1 Professional Behavior

All employees are expected to conduct themselves professionally at all times — whether on-site, at client locations, or in online interactions. This includes respectful communication, appropriate attire, and maintaining confidentiality of business information.

3.2 Anti-Harassment Policy

TechCorp has zero tolerance for harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment, bullying, discrimination based on race, gender, religion, nationality, age, disability, or any other protected class. All employees are encouraged to report incidents to their HR Business Partner or via the anonymous ethics hotline.

3.3 Conflict of Interest

Employees must disclose any potential conflicts of interest to their manager and HR in writing. This includes holding positions in competing companies, doing freelance work for clients of TechCorp, or having personal relationships with vendors or suppliers.

3.4 Dress Code

The office follows a smart-casual dress code. Formal business attire is required when meeting clients or attending official events. Jeans and casual wear are acceptable on Fridays (Casual Fridays).

Clothing with offensive language, symbols, or graphic imagery is strictly prohibited.

SECTION 4: COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

4.1 Salary Payment

Salaries are paid on the last working day of each month via direct bank transfer. Payslips are available in the employee self-service portal by the 28th of each month. Any salary queries must be raised with payroll by the 20th to be reflected in the current month's payment.

4.2 Performance Bonus

Annual performance bonuses are awarded based on individual performance ratings and company profitability. The bonus cycle is January to December. Payouts occur in March of the following year.

Bonus Range based on performance rating:

- Exceeds Expectations (5): 20-30% of annual salary
- Meets All Expectations (4): 10-15% of annual salary
- Meets Expectations (3): 5-8% of annual salary
- Needs Improvement (2): No bonus
- Unsatisfactory (1): No bonus

4.3 Health Insurance

All full-time employees and their immediate family (spouse + up to 2 children under 25) are covered under the company group health insurance. The coverage includes hospitalization, outpatient consultations, dental, and optical benefits up to specified annual limits. The company pays 100% of the premium for the employee; family coverage is shared 80/20.

4.4 Provident Fund (PF) and Pension

Employee contribution: 12% of basic salary (pre-tax)

Employer contribution: 12% of basic salary

Contributions are made monthly and are fully vested after 2 years.

Employees may voluntarily increase their contribution up to 100% of salary.

4.5 Travel and Expense Reimbursement

Business travel expenses are reimbursed upon submission of original receipts within 30 days of travel. Expense limits:

- Domestic flights: Economy class
- International flights: Business class for journeys over 6 hours
- Hotels: Up to $150/night domestic, $250/night international
- Meals per diem: $50 domestic, $80 international
- Local transport: Actual cost (cab/rideshare receipts required)

4.6 Learning and Development Allowance

Each employee receives an annual L&D budget of $1,500 for training, certifications, conferences, or online courses. Requests must be pre-approved by your line manager. The company will sponsor professional certifications relevant to your role (e.g., AWS, PMP, CFA) up to $500 per year with a 12-month service bond post-certification.

SECTION 5: PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

5.1 Performance Review Cycle

TechCorp uses a continuous performance management framework with:
- Quarterly Check-ins: Informal conversations between employee and manager
- Mid-Year Review (July): Formal written feedback, goal adjustment
- Annual Appraisal (December): Full performance and compensation review
All reviews are conducted via the PerformanceHub portal.

5.2 Goal Setting (OKRs)

At the start of each year, employees set 3-5 Objectives with 2-3 Key Results each. Goals must follow the SMART framework (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound). Goals are cascaded from company to team to individual to ensure alignment.

5.3 Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)

If an employee consistently does not meet expectations, HR and the manager will initiate a 60-day Performance Improvement Plan (PIP). The PIP outlines specific measurable targets. Failure to meet PIP targets may result in termination of employment.

5.4 360-Degree Feedback

Twice a year, employees give and receive anonymous feedback from up to 8 peers, direct reports, and cross-functional partners. This feedback is used for developmental purposes only and does not directly influence compensation decisions.

SECTION 6: GRIEVANCE AND ESCALATION POLICY

6.1 Raising a Grievance

Employees who have a workplace grievance should first attempt to resolve it informally by speaking with their direct manager.
If unresolved within 5 business days, a formal grievance can be submitted to HR via the employee portal. HR will acknowledge receipt within 2 business days and begin investigation.

6.2 Grievance Investigation

A full investigation will be completed within 20 business days. Both parties will be heard. The outcome will be communicated in writing. Appeals to the resolution can be made to the HR Director within 5 business days of the decision.

6.3 Whistleblower Protection

Employees who report misconduct, fraud, or policy violations in good faith are protected from retaliation under this policy.
Reports may be made anonymously via the ethics hotline:

Phone: 1-800-ETHICS-1 | Web: ethics.techcorp.com

SECTION 7: SEPARATION AND EXIT POLICY

7.1 Notice Period

- Probation (first 3 months): 1 week notice
- 3 months to 2 years: 4 weeks notice
- 2 years to 5 years: 6 weeks notice
- Over 5 years: 8 weeks notice

The company may pay in lieu of notice at its discretion.

7.2 Exit Clearance

Before the last day, employees must return all company property, complete a knowledge transfer document, conduct a handover session with their successor or manager, and complete the exit interview.
